

Internal Competition Rules of St Ives Photographic Club

(Version 17, October 2021)

General

- The decision of the Competition Judge is final. The decision of the Competition Secretary (in terms of allowing entries or not, as in whether they conform to the rules or not) is also final.
- All photos must be the work of the entrant and only paid up members of the club may enter images
- Images used in The Annual, George Dellar, President's and Quartet competitions can be used once in subsequent monthly competitions
- Conversely, any images already used in an internal competition, cannot be used in the Annual, George Dellar, President's or Quartet competitions
- Images must appear dissimilar to any other image already entered in a competition:
 - a) The difference between two images should be easily discernible in a side by side comparison
 - b) A re-edited or re-processed image is not a dissimilar one
 - c) Chromatic adjustments, such as conversion to monochrome or reverting to the colour original is not a dissimilar image
 - d) If it becomes necessary to look at metadata, the images in question must have been taken more than 2 seconds apart
- All images, in all competitions, are marked out of 20
- The onus is on the entrant to make sure their images comply with the rules. If they do not conform the Competition Secretary should attempt to notify the author and invite re-submission
- If a member challenges a decision to reject an image, it will be reviewed by the Competition Sub-Committee (which will not include the Competition Secretary) made up of 2 committee members and 3 volunteers from the club. The Sub-Committee decision is final
- If an image is omitted from a competition in error, the entry will be awarded a score equal to the average for that class (rounded up)
- Late entries to competitions will not be accepted (unless the circumstances are exceptional and this is then at the discretion of the Competition Secretary)
- Members of the club are entitled to expect Best Practice in running competitions
- While every effort will be made to ensure prints are returned in their original condition, the club shall not be held responsible for any damage to any work
